Prerequisites for the Course:	French I
Course Summary:	The aim of the course is to provide the necessary knowledge to confidently interact in situations arising within Tourism organisations and management as well as within the Tour guide's professional and personal life. The foundation of this knowledge is acquired through the capture, understanding and interpretation of texts presented in both verbal and written forms. This is then followed by talking about the covered themes. The underlying common basis, logic and functional use of language is explored and understood. A focused and creative use of vocabulary is encouraged in both verbal and written forms. Formation of relationships through verbal communication and the appropriate choice of interaction style is explored. The role of the French language as a cultural component is discussed.
Course Methods:	Lectures, practical sessions, individual and group work, analysis of intercultural situations, dialogues, role plays, work with texts and audio-visual materials, presentations, tests, final exam.
Assessment:	Examination
Requirements for Credits:	Attendance of lectures, active participation in practical sessions, all independent and group assignments completed, all presentations done, all written assignments submitted in a timely fashion (adhering to the requirements), all tests should have a positive assessment (at least 51%), the final exam should have a positive assessment (the received grade – at least 4). The final grade consists of semester work (70%) and final exam (30%).
Course Contents:	Accommodation, location, facilities and comfort. Food and shopping for it. Meals at a restaurant – serving and ordering. Everyday life and housework. Clothes. Colours. Materials. Use of prepositions and reflexive verbs.
